Who we are

We promote Spanish language and culture and work alongside teachers and schools to support the teaching of Spanish in the United Kingdom and Ireland.

We have education offices in London, Dublin and Edinburgh where our education advisers will gladly assist you.

Classroom resources are available in the resource centre of our London office. These are available for you to use. Get in touch with us!

Learn with us!

Join courses, seminars and workshops for Spanish teachers like yourself.

We work with education agencies, universities and other institutions to ensure the high quality of our professional development programmes.

Make the most of our online opportunities for learning! Keep up-to-date with the newest trends in Spanish language teaching.

Apply for a grant to enjoy an immersion course in Spain during the school holidays and come back with lots of ideas for your Spanish class.

Language assistants

Do you need language and cultural support in your class? Contact us about the language assistants programme!

Enhance your Spanish lessons with fun and relevant activities, developing your students' communication skills with the help of a language assistant. There is nothing better than real Spanish culture right in your classroom.
